

Ethnic Studies

ON THE HORIZON

Serve the People: Making Asian America in the Long Sixties

Tuesday, November 1st, 3–4:30PM
George Hall 301B (AQ Room)

Lecture by
Karen Ishizuka

Film Producer, Curator and Writer

Dr. Ishizuka will talk about her new book, Serve the People (Verso, 2016), which offers a social and cultural history of the Asian American movement. Drawing on interviews with movement leaders and ground-level activists as well as a rich archive of cultural documentation, she will illustrate the intricate memories and meanings of the Asian American movement. In reflecting on the long Sixties, she will discuss the state of Asian America today. She was part of the Asian American Movement in Los Angeles. She helped establish the Japanese American National Museum and served as the museum's senior curator. Among her other books is Lost and Found: Reclaiming the Japanese American Incarceration (University of Illinois Press 2006).

#JapaneseAmerica
#UHMethnicStudies
#AsianAmericanMovement

www.ethnicstudies.hawaii.edu/pages/events
instagram.com/uhmethnicstudies