Do You Know What ES Courses to Take?

Aloha. You are a student with a variety of interests. This coming semester Ethnic Studies has courses that may just speak to those interests. You can take the following courses if you’re:

Interested in new ways of thinking about race, ethnicity, community, and research?
• ES 480 - Oceanic Ethnic Studies: Theories and Methods
• ES 496, sec. 1 - Race, Identity and the City
• ES 496, sec. 2 - Filming Social Change

Interested in making sense of Hawai‘i’s unique ethnic history?
• ES 221 - Hawaiians
• ES 330 - Japanese in Hawai‘i
• ES 360 - Immigration to Hawai‘i and the U.S.
• ES 456 - Racism and Ethnicity in Hawai‘i

Interested in Hawai‘i’s economy and politics?
• ES 320 - Hawai‘i and the Pacific
• ES 350 - Economic Change and Hawai‘i’s People

Interested in popular music?
• ES 395 - Multiethnic Popular Culture: Hip Hop

Interested in gaining insight into the conflict in the Middle East?
• ES 455B - Comparative Ethnic Conflict: Middle East

Interested in the ethnic/racial/gender relations in the U.S?
• ES 420 - American Ethnic and Race Relations
• ES 410 - Race, Class and the Law
• ES 390 - Gender and Race in U.S. Society